Position Posting

July 14, 2006

From: William J. Leahy
Chief Counsel

TRAINING UNIT STAFF ATTORNEY

The Training Unit is seeking a full-time attorney to assist in designing, planning, and delivering criminal defense training programs for CPCS staff attorneys, bar advocates, and others. Jury trial experience, excellent writing skills, and exceptional organizational ability are required. Experience in teaching, coaching trial skills, and in representing indigent individuals and/or working with disadvantaged populations is an asset for this position.

For currently employed staff attorneys, this position is a lateral transfer with no increase in salary.

Applicants should submit a resume, writing sample, and a letter of interest which includes a description of the applicant's experience in the following areas: (1) jury trials; (2) training and teaching; (3) attendance at relevant training programs; (4) appellate work; (5) publications, and (6) computer skills and IT skills, to:
